GLENN YOUNGKIN WINS GOP NOMINATION IN VIRGINIA GOVERNOR'S RACE WITH EARLY ENDORSEMENT FROM AMERICAN HINDU COALITION

CHANTILLY, VIRGINIA – MAY 10, 2021 – An early endorsement from the American Hindu Coalition (AHC) Republican Caucus may have cinched Glenn Youngkin the GOP nomination for Governor of Virginia. AHC leadership members, Shekhar Tiwari, Harsh Sethi, Srilekha Reddy Palle, Alok Srivastava and John Jagers sat down for lunch with Mr. Youngkin in February and planned a winning strategy. Later Youngkin family also visited a local Hindu temple.

AHC Board Member Dr. Alok Srivastava who cast his vote for Youngkin on May 8th as a registered Fairfax County GOP delegate observed: “Hindu American voters across Virginia talk about the election’s ballot integrity concerns. I am impressed about Virginia GOP’s administration of the May 8th distributed ballot and how the process was executed. Our faith in the election system is restored. Ballot integrity is crucial to our democratic orderliness.”

AHC Board member Srilekha Reddy Palle commented: “Youngkin is a business leader well known to many Hindu Americans and a regular at many of our Northern Virginia local community events. With Youngkin as nominee, the Governor’s race in November is winnable for the GOP.”
