AMERICAN HINDU COALITION LEADS PANEL DISCUSSION ON THE COMING OF AGE OF HINDU AMERICAN POLITICAL ACTIVISM

Washington, DC– July 3, 2022. The American Hindu Coalition (AHC) leadership marked America’s Independence Day leading a seminal panel discussion on Hindu American political activism at the American Telegu Association’s 17th (ATA) Annual Convention and Youth Conference in Washington, DC. Seventeen thousand individuals almost all Hindus from all over the world attended the ATA event.

With an enthusiastic audience in a packed conference room, AHC Board Member Srilekha Palle moderated a bipartisan panel discussion with prominent Hindu Americans, including, among others, Upendra Chivukula (Democrat, former New Jersey State Assembly Member, currently a Commissioner on the NJ Public Utility Board), Niraj Antani (Republican, Ohio State Senator), and Adi Sethi (Republican, former Asian Outreach Director, Republican National Committee).

AHC Chairman Shekhar Tiwari, who delivered an award to Commissioner Chivukula observed: “We have been experiencing very close elections in recent years and we have learned that a Hindu American voting bloc in states such as Virginia, New Jersey, and Pennsylvania, can deliver victory to a candidate. We need to understand that we are not just an ATM for candidates, but we are a grassroots power, and our values and must align with our vote.”
