AMERICAN HINDU COALITION APPLAUDS PRESIDENT TRUMP'S SUPPORT FOR SMALL BUSINESS GROWTH

Ashburn Virginia, April 15, 2018 - President Donald Trump has declared, "Together we are unleashing a new era of American Prosperity, perhaps the likes we have never seen before."

In a November 29, 2017 press statement, the White House defined small businesses as "firms employing fewer than 500 employees," "responsible for two out of every three net new jobs created in American," contributing to "nearly half of the United States gross domestic product," and "over 97 percent of the United States exporters."

Harsh Sethi, AHC President, a small business exporter based in Northern Virginia, remarked: "Hindu Americans are largely entrepreneurs and small business owners who contributed to a significant share of America's economic growth in 2017." Mr. Sethi added: "We know that small businesses are the direct beneficiaries of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017. The President's regulatory cuts focused on relief for small businesses, are also very helpful."

On Tax Day, the membership of the American Hindu Coalition (AHC) have widely registered their support for President Trump's economic policies favoring small business growth and unleashing American prosperity.
