MEMBER ALERT

Fairfax, Virginia – December 3, 2018 - Hosted by Political Affairs Director Srilekha Palle, the American Hindu Coalition (AHC) membership met today to discuss the post-election grassroots landscape with Fairfax County Republican Committee

Vice Chairman, Matthew Truong. Chairman Truong is of Vietnamese Buddhist heritage, a grassroots group that is a part of the AHC coalition. The AHC leadership attending the event included Chairman Shekhar Tiwari, Women's Caucus Director, Punita Sethi, Deputy Treasurer Radhika Guntur, and Education Rights Advocacy leader Manga Anantmula. The evening's discussions focused on small business concerns such as high taxes, runaway cost of regulations, and affordable healthcare. Also discussed were voter concerns such as crimes involving illegal immigrants. For AHC members who are considering running for political office in the next election, including questions about training sessions on how to run a campaign or how to get introduced at upcoming local area political events, Srilekha Palle will serve as the point of contact.
