AMERICAN HINDU COALITION MEETS WITH HOUSE REPUBLICAN LEADER KEVIN MCCARTHY

Washington DC – June 26, 2019 – At an event at the Liaison Capitol Hill Hotel, for which the American Hindu Coalition (AHC) was among the sponsors, the AHC leadership met with House Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy (R-CA). Leader McCarthy may be the next Speaker if the Republicans retake majority control of the House of Representatives in the 2020 election. AHC was represented by Board Member Alok Srivastava and several members of the Executive and other Committees – including Buchanna Gajula, Srilekha Palle, Ajay Kothari, Sonali Gupta, Jayashree Telukuntla and Rupal Turner.

Alok Srivastava confirmed: “We had a substantive discussion with Leader McCarthy, which he greatly appreciated, about our organization’s mission, motivation, advocacy platform, and the important role Hindu American voters play in the politics and in elections.”

Making a note of the presence of the AHC delegation in his official remarks, Leader McCarthy expressed strong support for women and minority candidates who are preparing to run on the Republican Party’s 2020 ballot.

Srilekha Palle, a Virginia Healthcare Executive and AHC’s Business Caucus Co-Chair, observed: “I am one of the Hindu American women running on the Republican ballot for Fairfax County Virginia’s Sully District Supervisor. I believe that the Republican Party’s values match my own and the Party’s enthusiastic grassroots support makes me confident of victory.”

The AHC Leadership will continue the dialogue with Leader McCarthy’s office.
